Acknowledgement

I would like to express gratitude from the deepest reaches of my eternal essence to my beloved wife and co-author Cynthia. Due to the content, the challenges of writing this book go beyond words. Cynthia remained steadfast in love, support, integrity, authenticity, and wisdom. She is truly a woman of substance.

To my two Sons for having the wisdom to understand their father's calling and broader obligation to our Humanity. Their ability to maintain their integrity is a testament to the maturity of their Spirit.

I want to also thank Cynthia's two sons and family who miss her deeply and whose solidarity of character, understanding and depth of wisdom eases the pain of absence.

Special mention goes to Marina, for her unwavering support and unconditional love. Thank you for being my mother, and a woman of great integrity. My love for you is eternal.

Rarely in this world is there a person with the strength of character that will come along and feel naturally inclined to support a venture unconditionally. Jason Bawden-Smith is such a person. His humanity, his love for our Mother Earth and wisdom gained from extensive life experiences combined with his accomplishments in the world of business, has made possible the creation of an infrastructure to share this knowledge with our greater Human family. His ability to contend with the onslaught of challenges in supporting us demanded a level of intestinal fortitude above and beyond. Thanks J.

Cynthia and I have had the luxury of working with Liz, our one person support team whose multi-skilled abilities and resilience to the ongoing black comedy throughout the process was invaluable beyond words.

To Leone; a true friend and reluctant oracle whose council and critique abounded with eternal wisdom. Thank you for being there dear si-star.

We also thank our dear friend Medwyn, for his unswerving loyalty and support through the whole process. Your ability to bring laughter and joy in challenging times was music to our hearts.

In addition I would like to express my immense gratitude to Lance whose life was put on hold so that he may edit the manuscript. An old friend from beyond...

It is impractical for me to name everyone individually who played a role in making this book possible. Along the journey of my life there are those who were there in support through my most difficult times. And there are those who were there in so many other ways. All of our interactions, the good the bad and the ugly, have made me who I am today. All are of equal value as all resulted in wisdom gained. For whatever role you played I thank you and know my love for you is eternal.

Foreword

George is about to take you on a journey from a unique and universal perspective. This is a journey so grand and a message so direct and confronting your head may hurt but your heart will sing.

I stumbled upon George's material in September 2010 during his first radio interview with Kerry Cassidy from Project Camelot. It entered at a time in my life where I had spent several months doing doctorate level research into the dark agenda and the earthly control systems. This research created more questions than it answered, created confusion and kept me locked in the drama. It can be a very depressing experience when you understand the world is run by corrupt politicians, bankers, and priests.

"Our social system is designed to foster division, our education system is designed to conceal knowledge,
our health system is designed to create sickness,
our financial system is designed to steal wealth,
our community is designed to create disunity and our very civilisation itself is highly uncivilised."

Max Igan

However, the level of control over humanity runs much deeper than the earthly controls of secret societies and the Illuminati. In the section titled the Supreme Cosmic Deception, George goes into great detail to explain how “off world” beings are manipulating humanity. He takes mind influence and control to the next level, showing how there are not just earth bound and galactic programs but sophisticated cosmic agendas used on humanity.

I hold two applied science degrees and a well-developed b/s meter, but I can neither prove nor disprove the veracity of George’s story. There is no hard empirical evidence that George has had Extra-Terrestrial and Extra-Dimensional contacts and it is impossible to confirm the source of his immense wisdom. What I can share are my experiences and some insights gained from my close relationship with George.

My search for the meaning to life began in my early years and has led to many worldly experiences. I have been fortunate to have incredible spiritual experiences with Sharman in Papua New Guinea, witnessed John of God perform amazing healing sessions in Brazil, studied with Chinese qi gong masters and even been invited into the homes of self-development gurus like Bob Proctor and John Assaraf. However, none of the knowledge gained through these experiences nor the teachings described below provided the answers to life’s big questions. Key pieces to life’s greatest puzzle remained elusive.

I found out at a very early age that religion was never going to answer my questions. Mark Twain said it best: “Religion is a belief, created by the first con man that met the first fool.” George challenges the doctrine of religion exposing the deception of this tyrannical business to levels that may shock you. I do feel for the god-fearing parishioners who, despite being wonderful human beings, blindly give their power away.

Eastern philosophies look much more appealing; Buddha, relaxing meditations, reincarnation, karma, yoga, etc. Even Sanskrit texts are filled with references to gods who fought battles in the sky using Vimanas (UFO's). Whilst I found several aspects of eastern philosophy appealing, some of the teachings I just did not resonate with; maybe it is my Western conditioning. However, I did decide to take up meditation. I meditated daily for several years using a binaural beat auditory technology that takes you into deep theta and even delta brain wave states. It was fantastic; I felt so happy and alive. But then I realised that I was still externalising, using a technology to take me into a blissful state of nothingness. George describes meditation techniques that require you to internalise external energies as ecstasy for the ego. I have to agree.

I was more attracted to the self-development and the new age movement as it offered a blend of eastern philosophy with western metaphysics. But again these modalities either ask you to internalise energies from outside yourself or limit their focus to the mind. You are asked to bring in energies of Archangel Michael's blue sword, the violet flame of St. Germaine or "Universal" white light into your crown chakra. Alternative healing modalities also commonly use external energies and techniques as part of their healing practices.

Enlightened yogis, great sages and ascended masters tell us absolute Truth is found within. But are these teachers providing the complete picture? Many refer to the chakra body and third eye activation. In this book, George investigates these techniques and philosophies and poses the question; could the pineal gland and the chakra body be part of an elaborate plan by a small 'g' god to usher humanity towards a limited cosmic level of enlightenment?

I have spent 2 years working alongside George as his business manager and friend. I have also been quietly looking for holes in his character and his material. Can the message he shares about our universal journey actually be true? I can't answer this question. But we will all soon know because George's harmonic equations and heart based communication with Mother Earth nominate the March equinox 2013 as the end of the great cycle.

There is a phenomenon that surrounds George Kavassilas. He never posts on Facebook but his personal page is fully subscribed and his "like page" continues to grow daily into many thousands. He is one of the most requested guests on the alternative radio circuit. His 2011 interviews recorded some of the highest number of downloads for the year. An independent forum set up by like-minded people has swelled to over 1000 members and he never posts on any thread. An acclaimed music video director felt so inspired by George that he has spent the last two years of his spare time filming and editing a movie quality documentary on George's life.

I have had many amazing personal experiences since meeting George – too many for this short foreword. But one I'd like to share occurred only two weeks after I decided to be George's 'Manager'. Through a peculiar set of circumstances I was invited to attend a dinner with a fellow who claimed to be the head of the secret military in Australia. I didn't ask for any credentials as it didn't seem appropriate at the time but his status has since been corroborated by one of the world's prominent personalities in this area of research. He was a pleasant chap and wanted to know my intentions and motivation for helping George, to give me the 'rules of engagement' and of course meet with George. The follow-up meeting between the three of us was the most bizarre I have ever experienced and the content of such will remain in strict confidence.

However, he did reveal that the intention of the “off world” controllers was to integrate human DNA with artificial intelligence; trans-humanism. Sounds unbelievable at first but if you study the incredible advances in nanotechnology, synthetic biology, cloning, robotics and 4D holographics, trans-humanism could be a reality within our lifetime.

Look at our society today. The technocratic era is well established and it does feel like we are being funnelled into a controlled society with an ultimate agenda of creating human cyborgs. I certainly do not feel that I have incarnated onto this living organic planet we call Mother Earth to become a sophisticated human robot. George’s material and my own intuition tell me that a virtual world integrated with artificial human intelligence is not the intended outcome for humanity.

George holds no tertiary qualifications, ties to secret societies nor has he ever been employed by the military or government. What George has to draw on is a vast amount of wisdom, gained through a lifetime of extraordinary experiences, including interactions with Beings from many different planets and realities. He has no agenda, hidden or otherwise. He does not seek fame, followers or fortune. He doesn’t even ask anyone to believe him. His sole motive is to share a message of self-empowerment that helps trigger a remembrance of how truly magnificent you are.

As crazy as George’s material may seem, the man is completely sane and one of the most respectful and honourable human beings I’ve had the pleasure to meet. Yes the knowledge and wisdom he shares is literally out of this world but I can assure you it is not the ramblings of a mad man.

What sets George’s book apart from others is that his knowledge is gained through the school of hard knocks. The message that he presents

We are all on different paths and George's message will not resonate with everyone. If you find yourself struggling with the material in a particular paragraph or chapter just skip it and move on. For me and many others The Message that George shares is life changing. You owe it to yourself to finish the book. You may find your life will never be quite the same again.

George exposes the lies and deceptions which bind us to the earthly, galactic and cosmic matrices. He asks us to go deep within to connect to our single heart centre. It is only by exposing all the layers of manipulation and shattering the false beliefs and programs that we can re-remember who we truly are, where we come from, why we are here and how to complete Our Universal Journey home.
